(The reports on the Bible Lands Tour in previous issues have been on March 3-8. In this report I begin with Sunday, the seventh day of the tour.—Editor).

Sunday, March 9, 1969. We are still in Jerusalem. After breakfast at the Mt. Scopus Hotel, we gathered on our bus where we conducted our devotional services. We went from Jerusalem through Bethany down the "Jericho Road" to Jericho and the Dead Sea.

We stopped at the "Inn of the Good Samaritan" which Jesus speaks of in Luke 10:30-37. We saw shepherds on the hill sides with their flocks.

We journeyed on to Jericho the "City of Palm Trees," (Deu. 34:3). It is located five miles west of the Jordan River. It has a tropical climate. We saw here banana groves, palm trees and many beautiful flowers. Jericho is a green oasis in the center of the dry Jordan Valley area.

While here we visited "Elisha's Spring"

Meditations

By: G. H. Dillard

In memory of my dear wife, Effie.
Written on our fifty-first wedding anniversary, September 4, 1969.

The dead in Christ are only sleeping,
Tho their beds be made of clay.
They shall rise and joyfully meet Him,
When He comes in that great day.
We that live shall see His glory,
But the dead shall first arise.
Then together we will hail Him,
King Em-man-uel in the skies.
O, be robed and ready brother,
Let us hail the mighty King.
Singing, Grave where is thy victory,
And, O death where is thy sting?

Jesus tells us in John chapter 5, that the time was coming when those in the graves would hear the voice of the Son of God. I folded the feeble hands of my wife on her breast two minutes before she went to sleep. But when she hears that voice, the vault will burst open as if paper.

In I Cor. 15, Paul tells us that these bodies are sown in weakness but will be raised in power. He speaks of a mystery.
That we should not all sleep but would be changed. I expect to be living when Jesus comes again. But whether asleep or awake, I will meet dear Effie in that great multitude. Then we will be at home with Jesus while Eternal ages roll. All people can have that hope by putting their faith in that same Jesus that Effie put her trust in at the age of nine.

THE BOOK THAT HAD TO BE PRINTED!

"THE RELIGION RACKET"

This book by Norman H. Wells has had a tremendous response. In the first three weeks after it came from the printer, there were sales in over 30 different states. Churches and bookstores are buying it in quantity lots.
The Cincinnati Enquirer, one of the large daily newspapers, had a feature article on the book. The response from Pastors and religious leaders has been great.

This is the book that tears aside the sham and pretense and looks at religion as it really is today. This is the book that "tells it like it is" in religion.

You must have this book!

The price is $1.25 per copy.

(More People Going Than Ever)

Caves of Qumran where Dead Sea Scrolls were found.

as you read of in II Kings 2:19-22. I enjoyed a fresh drink from this spring.

Looking west from the city we saw the mountain range which in the Bible is called, "the wilderness." (Matt. 4:1). It was here that Jesus went after being baptized by John the Baptist, and was tempted for forty days and nights. Turning around and looking east over the Jordan Valley, we saw the area where John baptized Christ and the Apostles (Matt. 3:17; Acts 1:22).

Leaving this Biblical and historic city, we traveled south through the Plains of Jordan to the Dead Sea. The greatest depth of this body of salt water is 1,310 ft.

We looked east across the Dead Sea to Mt. Nebo. This is the mount where God brought Moses to see the Promised Land before his death (Deu. 34:1-6). Only God knew how I felt when I looked upon this mountain and meditated upon what happened there with God and Moses.

We now go down to Qumran. It was here in the caves where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found about 1947 by some Arabic Bedouins. This is located at the eastern end of the Wilderness of Judah.

We now make our way back to Bethany. This was the home of Lazarus, Mary and Martha (John 11:1-18). Jesus often visited here. The town is located about two miles east of Jerusalem. The tomb of Lazarus is said to be about the center of the picture shown here of Bethany.

Bethany

Leaving Bethany we go back into Jerusalem to our hotel for lunch (our Sunday dinner). After lunch we boarded our bus and went to Calvary and the Garden Tomb. I cannot speak the words nor write them, to describe what this experience meant to me. Thank God for this day! We view Calvary where Christ died for us all, (Heb. 2:9; John 3:16). We went into the empty tomb. Near the tomb under some trees and in this beautiful garden of flowers we conducted our worship service. This certainly was a great experience. We felt the presence of the Spirit of God.

After this memorable service, we went to view the Model City of Jerusalem. From there we went to the Hebrew University. Leaving the campus, we next saw the Knesset (Parliament Building). The sun had disappeared behind the western horizon, the lights began to twinkle on here and there, so it was time to head for the hotel. After dinner we enjoyed another good night's rest in the Holy City. (To be continued).

Reservations Are Being Made

Reservations are now being made for the Bible Lands Pilgrimage. I already have several who have made theirs for the 10-day tour next spring, March 3-12, 1970.

Some people want to go and are asking about the situation in Israel. This was the situation in Israel this year when we went, yet the trouble spots in America sounds worse than in Israel some times on the news. I am anxiously looking forward to the next tour. Most of the trouble is around the Suez Canal which is far from the tour area. MORE PEOPLE ARE VISITING BIBLE LANDS THAN EVER BEFORE. MAKE YOUR RESERVATION NOW. — Editor

How About This, Parents?

THE BOTTLE—A young girl was crowned beauty queen in her high school. She and her date went out to celebrate. Late that night her father was awakened and called to the scene of an accident. In a ditch lay the dead body of his lovely daughter . . . pinned underneath the wreckage was the body of her companion. On the pavement lay a broken bottle and the smell of liquor filled the air. The father was seen wringing his hands together and was heard to say, "If I could just get my hands on the criminal who sold them that bottle, I'd wring his neck!"

After going home he decided he needed a "shot" to Booster his nerves, so he reached into his usual spot for his bottle of "tonic". The bottle was gone and this note was in its place: "Daddy, we wanted to celebrate so borrowed your bottle . . . sure you won't mind.
